Our 34th Show is History

Special points of interest:

- 34th Show is History
- Important reminders

Thanks to the knowledgeable hard working Show Committee our 34th Show came off in fine fashion. The NW Group of the Magic Lantern Society provided our Friday night with most interesting presentation. Saturday show had more eager buyers attending this year.

Stuart Curry summed up the experience of our show: "Sitting in Starbucks at 8 AM (Sunday) trying to figure out what the biggest "treasure" was that I brought away from the show. And I realized that it wasn't a "thing", camera or gadget. It was friendship or kinship or fellowship.

It was watching people struggling to enjoy one more show. It was watching people that were obviously older looking than the last time I saw them. That means I am older too, but as they do, I ignore it until the aches and pains catch up. The show is important not for the show's sake, but for the people to have something to plan for, to work for, and maybe see a little reward whatever that is to them.

Well, put the signs away, pick out a treasure for show and tell, and more on to the next project."

Thank you Stu!

See you all next year on April 11, 2015. Same time and place.
